POST WORKSHOP/CONFERENCE REPORT

Konrad Adenauer Foundation Strategic Workshop for Partners and Collaborators

Cape Town, 25th - 18th of February

Submission of Workshop/Conference reports

Two weeks after attendance of workshop or conference, members of staff are expected to submit brief reports. The objective of the report is to identify lessons/experiences for dissemination, share ideas and best practices and potential networks/partnerships to be pursued. The report should incorporate the following:

- ✚ The Summary Statement - describe the workshop/conference attended (Where? When? Conference objectives? Target Audience? Conference organisers?)
- ✚ The Workshop/ Conference Details describe the themes discussed:
 - Describe your expectations or objectives(s) in attending the workshop or conference.
 - Describe your overall reaction to the workshop or conference and whether your expectations or objective(s) were met.
 - Mention what aspect of the workshop or conference was of particular value to you.
- ✚ List the Lessons learnt or conference outcomes
- ✚ Attach additional documents like paper presented, PowerPoint presentations.

The report and accompanying documents should be submitted in electronic format to the Registrar Research, Innovation and Outreach at <registrar-rio@ku.ac.ke>.

CONFERENCE/ WORKSHOP REPORT

Attendee Name: Tomasz Milej

Attendee Designation and Department: Professor, Public Law Department

Title of workshop/conference: Konrad Adenauer Foundation Strategic Workshop for Partners and Collaborators

Conference URL: Click here to enter text.

Conference Summary: Brief description, conference organisers, target audience, venue and duration. The workshop was organized by the Konrad Adenauer Foundation Rule of Law Programme for Sub-Saharan Africa. It was held in Cape Town, South Africa. Participants were around 20 senior academicians representing universities and also civil society organisations from across Africa and the African Union.
Workshop/ Conference Objectives: Describe conference objectives The objectives were: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - to advice the Konrad Adenauer Foundation on priorities for funding with regard to the rule of law; - to discuss some main challenges, such as independence of the judiciary and devolution; - to exchange ideas and information on various ongoing and future projects; and - to reflect on how to improve the legal education with the view of strengthening the rule of law.
Lessons learnt: Identify specifically what you are bringing back from the conference that relates to your departmental/school/University objectives. I have improved my skills to design research and projects responsive to the actual needs in the context of strengthening of the rule of law. I have also expended networks with academicians across Africa working in similar research teams. Discussion which we had on the separation of powers deepened my knowledge and understanding in this area.
Title of Paper/Presentations/Lectures done by self: "The importance of International Students Cooperation"
Partnership/Collaborations/Funding Opportunities/Networks Developed: List new contacts developed that may be useful for collaborations and funding

- Strengthening of the cooperation with the Konrad Adenauer Foundation which has already sponsored an event at the Kenyatta University School of Law
- Mandela School of Public Governance at the University of Cape Town. I have already nominated two KUSOL staff members for a Women in Leadership Programme operated by this School
- Stellenbosch Institute for Advanced Study opening research stay opportunities for KU staff. An information has been already disseminated.
