In this project, two theorems in (6) on controllability of autonomous systems defined with the help of ordinary Differential Equations (ODE) in finite dimensional vector spaces is generalized to infinite dimensional locally convex topological spaces. This has been achieved with the help of the idea of a derivative, much more general than Frechet's derivative and an integral both defined in (12).